

Within the splendid settings of the newly renovated Silos di Ponente of the University of Verona, during the 5th annual event of the PMI Norther Italy Chapter: Progettando (working with projects), which addresses various approaches and methodologies of Project Management, Roberto Villa, Projectize partner, was presented with the Carlo Notari award:
Member of the Year 2010

Roberto, humbled and surprised by the award, stated as he received it from the association president Michele Maritato: "I trust that this award will only add to my determination to further promote the discipline of project management and the PMI-NIC activities".

Our complements and congratulations to Roberto for this important achievement.
