

PDU-MA stands for Professional Development Unit Management Agency and is the new service provided by Projectize to Project Management Professionals who wish to maintain their PMP certifications through participation in professionally compatible events and workshops at convenient times and locations.